OPINION IN LEAD

Economic diplomacy for better export performance

India’s trade deficit is not a new concern. The widening trade gap has become a challenge for India’s economy for a long time. However, for a small economy like India, efforts to promote better cross-border trade have been limited by the policy-making apparatus, on whose facilitation is an important policy agenda for India.

India has a strong base with traditional export markets and the government seeks to expand bilateral trade through bespoke research. However, for a small economy like India, efforts to promote better cross-border trade have been limited by the policy-making apparatus, on whose facilitation is an important policy agenda for India.

REPORT

Climate and Development: An Agenda for Action

Investing an average of 1.4 percent of GDP annually could reduce climate risks in developing countries by as much as 70 percent by 2050 and boost resilience, emissions in these countries by as much as 60 percent, with global GDP rising by 0.2 percent annually could reduce climate risks in developing countries by as much as 70 percent. The widening trade gap has become a challenge for India’s economy for a long time. However, for a small economy like India, efforts to promote better cross-border trade have been limited by the policy-making apparatus, on whose facilitation is an important policy agenda for India.

NEWS

India, smaller nations talk trade via Rupee accounts

India has a strong base with traditional export markets and the government seeks to expand bilateral trade through bespoke research. However, for a small economy like India, efforts to promote better cross-border trade have been limited by the policy-making apparatus, on whose facilitation is an important policy agenda for India.

India’s NHPC awarded study license for 750 MW West Seti Hydropower Project

The Indian Government of India’s NHPC in coordination with the government of Nepal has visited our site or asked us about the use of carbon dioxide in the production of electricity. The government has also received feedback from these countries.

Nepal’s export cash subsidy

Nepal’s export cash subsidy has increased by 24 percent. Despite this, the potential for cross-border trade remains limited by the policy-making apparatus, on whose facilitation is an important policy agenda for India.

Pakistani dollar to weaken against climate

A recent study has shown that the country’s exports have been limited by the policy-making apparatus, on whose facilitation is an important policy agenda for India.

Events

COP27: Issues, agenda, and expectations

COP27 will be the first major climate conference convened by the UN environment agency, which will bring together countries on issues of climate change. This will be the first major climate conference convened by the UN environment agency, which will bring together countries on issues of climate change. The agenda will focus on a range of issues, including reducing greenhouse gas emissions, adapting to the impacts of climate change, and ensuring that vulnerable countries have access to climate finance. This will be the first major climate conference convened by the UN environment agency, which will bring together countries on issues of climate change. The agenda will focus on a range of issues, including reducing greenhouse gas emissions, adapting to the impacts of climate change, and ensuring that vulnerable countries have access to climate finance.

TRADE, CLIMATE CHANGE AND DEVELOPMENT MONITOR

Monthly E-Newsletter of South Asia Watch on Trade, Economics and Environment

Volume 19, Issue 10, October 2022

Read More +