General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS) disciplines (1)

- Unconditional General Obligations - rules that must be respected by all Members in all sectors covered by the GATS, regardless of the existence of specific commitments
  - Most-Favored Nation (MFN) treatment, however there is possibility for members, at the time of entry into force of the Agreement (or date of accession) to seek exemption (Article II)
  - Transparency – publication and information requirements, including establishment of enquiry points (Article III)
  - Domestic regulations – access to domestic judicial mechanism (Article VI:2)
  - Monopolies – consultation requirements concerning restrictive business practices (Article IX) trade distorting subsidies (Article XV:2)

- Conditional Obligations - disciplines whose scope is confined to those sectors and modes for which a member has undertaken specific commitments
General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS) disciplines (2)

- Conditional General Obligations:
  - Domestic regulations – measures of general application are to be administered ‘in a reasonable, objective and impartial manner’ (Article VI:1); specific commitments are not nullified or impaired through regulatory requirements (licensing and qualification requirement and technical standards)
  - Monopolies – to prevent monopolists from abusing their position and act inconsistently with the specific commitments (Article VIII)
  - Payments and transfer- Members are required to allow international transfers and payments for current transactions relating to specific commitments (Article XI)

- Conditional Specific Commitments: Each Member is required to assume specific commitments relating to market access and national treatment in designated sectors
General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS): Framework disciplines (3)

Market Access (Article XVI)
Members are not allowed to have restrictions in a scheduled sector unless it has inscribed the relevant limitations:

- Number of service suppliers,
- Total number of service transactions or assets,
- Total number of service operations or the total quantity of service output,
- Total number of natural persons that may be employed in a particular sector,
- Specific types of legal entity through which a service can be supplied,
- Foreign equity participation (i.e. maximum equity participation),
General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS): Framework disciplines (4)

National Treatment (Article XVII)

‘In the sector inscribed in its schedule, and subject to any conditions and qualifications set out therein, each member shall accord to service and service suppliers of any other members, in respect of all measures affecting the supply of services, treatment no less favorable than that it accords to its own like services and service suppliers’

It does not ask for formally identical treatment but identical condition of competition, i.e. de facto nondiscrimination

Additional Commitments (Article XVIII)

Members may also undertake additional commitments with respect to measures not falling under the market access and national treatment obligations and may relate to the use of standards, qualification or licenses.
WTO Eighth Ministerial Meeting of December 2011 made a decision on service waiver, under this waiver WTO members are authorized to grant preferences to services and service providers of LDCs.

Members may provide preferential treatment to services with respect to the following measures:

- number of services suppliers allowed;
- value of transaction or assets;
- total quantity of service output;
- number of natural persons that may be employed;
- types of legal entity through which a services supplier is permitted to supply a service;
- participation of foreign capital in terms of limits on foreign equity or the absolute value of foreign investment.
Members may provide preferential treatment to services with respect to the following measures

- number of services suppliers allowed;
- value of transaction or assets;
- total quantity of service output;
- number of natural persons that may be employed;
- types of legal entity through which a services supplier is permitted to supply a service;
- participation of foreign capital in terms of limits on foreign equity or the absolute value of foreign investment.

Any other measures as annexed to waiver
Contents of the Services Waiver (2)

- Each member according preferential treatment pursuant to this waiver shall submit a notification to Council for Trade in Services.
- Members affected by such preferential treatment can request for consultation.
- Objective of the Waiver is to promote export of LDCs but not to raise the barriers.
- Annual review to determine whether exception circumstances justifying the Waiver still exist.
- The Waiver shall terminate upon the expiration of a period of 15 years.
- Nothing in the Waiver precludes the right of a member to have recourse to the Dispute Settlement Body.
Recent progress on Services Waiver

- Duration of the 2011 waiver decision is 15 years, but as no member made use of it by the end of the first two years,
- Ministers agreed at the Bali Ministerial Conference in 2013 to a new decision to ensure that the waiver was used.
- The Bali decision added a requirement that LDCs prepare a collective request for waivers.
- Six months after the submission of the request, the WTO Council for Trade in Services (CTS) was instructed to convene a High-Level Meeting where members, in a position to do so, would indicate their intentions to accord preferential treatment for LDC services and suppliers.
- In accordance with the Bali decision, the LDC Group submitted its collective request on 21 July 2014.
- In response, 23 WTO Members, both developed and developing, offered preferences.
